"THE CARETAKER'S DAUGHTER" ✓

By Hal E. Roach.

Charley, always in bad with his wife, takes a gunman's wife to a friend's cabin as a favor, as the gunman has just gotten out of jail. His friend, his wife, and the gunman follow them. He passes off the strange woman to his wife as the caretaker's daughter. While dinner is being served, in order to escape, he disguises himself as the caretaker. The gunman's wife and a Prohibition agent do the same thing, so that there are four who look like the caretaker. They are finally discovered and wifey crowns Charley with an automobile jack and takes him home.
